

JASON ROBERGE

TAX ATTORNEY

SUMMARY

Jason Roberge is a licensed California attorney dedicated to litigation and client advocacy. With a career that spans law, insurance, and public service, he offers clients a unique perspective in resolving complex legal and financial matters.

Before practicing law, Jason served as an insurance adjuster and estimator, gaining firsthand knowledge of claims and negotiations. He later managed large-scale reconstruction projects in New York following Hurricane Sandy. Jason also served in the United States Coast Guard, where he oversaw compliance, inspections, and enforcement of federal environmental laws.

Today, Jason leverages this extensive experience to represent clients with precision, professionalism, and a results-driven approach. He is an active member of multiple legal associations and is recognized for speaking on property insurance and litigation topics at industry conferences.
